

Do You Own a Millard Wells Original?

We are looking for submissions for our next big exhibit.

Keys History & Discovery Center is preparing for our next exhibit, which will include a collection of privately owned artwork by the late Florida Keys Artist Millard Wells. The exhibit will open on June 19, in conjunction with Millard Wells Days events being organized by the Morada Way Arts & Cultural District. The exhibit will run until August 10, 2014.

We will be displaying a vast collection of Millard's artwork including the Florida Keys backcountry, the Everglades, Indian Key, lighthouses, local birds and fish species. To be considered for inclusion in this unique collection, please provide the information below no later than Friday, May 13. Credit will be given to the owners of each painting. The art will be in a safe and secure indoor environment. Send to info@keysdiscovery.com or mail to P.O. Box 1124, Islamorada, FL 33036.

Name: _____

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

Phone Number: _____

Description of art, including how and when you acquired piece, through purchase, as a gift, tournament win, etc. Tell us a brief story behind the art.

Framed Dimensions: _____ Condition: _____ Est. Value: _____

Submission must include photo of art.

By signing below, you are agreeing to loan your artwork to the Florida Keys History and Discovery Foundation/Keys History & Discovery Center through Aug. 10, 2014.

Signature _____

A Selection Committee will review all submissions and will choose, in part based on a vast final collection with his many subjects featured. You will be notified by May 30 if your piece was selected. If so, delivery must be made the week of June 9-13. If you have any questions, please contact Jill Miranda Baker at 305-922-2237 or executivedirector@keysdiscovery.com.